- c) HRV may keep all or part of the Bond for such period as HRV may determine (acting reasonably) after the hire to cover the cost of un-notified damage or damage to third parties or their property. In the event the actual costs and damages are less than the Bond HRV will refund You such amounts.

8. Termination

- a) HRV may refuse any rental and/or cancel the Agreement and take immediate possession of the vehicle if You have breached clauses 2 or 3 of the Agreement; OR if in the reasonable opinion of HRV or the NZ Police an Authorised Driver does not have sufficient skill or experience to operate the vehicle in a safe manner or the safety of any person or the vehicle is at risk.

- e) HRV (acting reasonably) will investigate the accident or incident within 7 days of notification or discovery of the damage to determine if You were at fault and if any of the exclusions in clause 6 apply. HRV may also require a post-accident safety stand down period to enable HRV to investigate the cause of the accident. Note that if HRV receives further information after this 7-day period it may be necessary for HRV to reopen the investigation. HRV will also immediately deduct the Bond (if not already held by HRV) from Your credit card to cover the costs of repair. If HRV decide not to supply another vehicle to You, You will not be entitled to any refund for the remaining part of the rental.
